2(C) As is the the practice, the passports under the Tatkal categories would be issued subject to post-police verification. The Police authorities would be requested to send the Police verification reports within a period of three months. If no report is received within this period or a clear report is received, the passport will be allowed to run its normal course. However, if an adverse report is received at any stage after issuance of a passport, the PIA (Passport Issuing Authority) shall impound the passport and take necessary action under the passports Act. Tatkal fees as mentioned at APara 1 above would be payable in all Tatkal categories. No proof of urgency is required to be produced by any applicant desiring to apply under Tatkal schem. Those applicants, who are unable to produce either of the three documents or VC for obtaining passports under Tatkal scheme would be issued passports after police verification.

2(D) There may be instances where an applicant has a verification certificate and/or the three documents as prescribed in para 2(A), but he or she does not want to pay the additional fee as required under Tatkal. In such cases. Passport Officers will issue the passport within a period of 30 days on post-police verification basis. The applicant will also have to furnish a Standard Affidavit.

Employees in the Government Service and PSUs and their immediate family members (wife and minor dependent children only) whose Identity is certified in prescribed proforma by the Head of Department or the Head of the PSU or a person duly authorised by them for this purpose, may be issued a passport valid for ten years without any pre or post-police verification.

The necessary certificate in respect of categories at Para 2(b) and 3 above will be given in duplicate by the certifying authority indicating clearly the full name, designation and address of the certifying authority. One copy of the certificate so given will be returned by the Passport Office by post to the certifying authority after issuance of passport. In case, any indication of a forged certificate is received from the authority so intimated, the passport in question will be impounded and suitable action taken against the holder under the relevant provisions of the Passport Act, 1967. Passport Issuing Authorities will compulsorily check Passport Information Services on Net (PISON) and Approval Category (PAC) in each and every case before issuing passports on Post-Police Verification basis.

5. In addition, the following provisions will apply for issuance of fresh passports in the case of the relevant categories of applicants mentioned below:

(A) Minors: No. pre or post-issuance police verification will be required in the case of applicants up to 18 years of age. However, in all cases of minor applicants, concurrence of the parents needs to be submitted in each and every case. For identification purposes, such minor applicants may submit the following:

(a) Valid passports held by the parents/legal guardians along with suitable proof of parentage and prescribed affidavit from a parent

OR

(b) Three documents in respect of the parents as per Para 2(A) above to establish the identity of one of the parents together with suitable proof of parentage and standard affidavit from a parent.

In case of minore applicants up to the age of 18 years, passports would be issued for five years at a time due to frequent change in appearance.

(B) Re-issue cases: Passports would be renewed/reissued for a period of 10 years within three working days under Tatkal scheme on payment of additonal fee of Rs. 1500/- Altematively,- passports would be renewed/reissued for 10 years on payment of normal fee of Rs. 1000/- within a maximum period of 15 days fi"om the date of application. Further, in the absence of anything adverse against the applicant in the notice of PIA, no police verification will be required for renewal/reissue of a passport. In the case of change of address of an applicant, only a document establishing the latest address would be insisted upon.

Mere change of address will not warrant police verification. In the case of major change of physical appearance of an applicant, any one of the procedures listed at paras 1-3 above, as the case may be, for issuance of fresh passports, may be followed to establish the identity of the applicant. An applicant may be allowed to apply for a new passport in lieu of an expired/about to expire passports up to 3 years after and one year before the expiry of the passport. In case a new passport is applied after more than three years after expiry of the old passport, the procedure listed at paras 1-3 above as the case may be, will be followed.

Duplicate passports: In this case, if there is no adverse report in the notice of the passport issuing authority, a duplicate passport in lieu of a lost passport would be issued to an applicant for a period of 10 years subject to production of a police report regarding loss of passport and subject further to the details of the applicant tallying with those in the file of the lost passport in the PISON/PAC system. No pre/post issuance police verification will be needed in these cases. Lost passport circulars are to be issued immediately and Damaged/Revoked/Impounded/Lost (DRIL) passport entries made in PISON system.

Chairman/Chairperson of Apex Business Organizations i.e. Federation of India

Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI), Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) and Associated Chamber of Commerce and Industry (ASSOCHAM) would issue Verification Certificates (VCs) in respect of owners, partners or directors of Companies that are members of the concerned Chamber Based on these Verification Certificates (VCs) and the standard affidavit, passports would be issued to such applicants for ten years and would be subject to post-police verification.
